

Tonight

Lyrics by Norihiko Hibino

Night
Oh when the air is frosty

Trial
The flash of a moment

Now is the chance to spin
Your wheel of destiny

Now is the time to strike
Your spark of voltage

I wanna hear tonight
Exhaust shouts to extreme

This is the final chance Won't be another night

Dawn
I see a ray of light shine on the morning dew just keep on the speed for a little while

Time passing by so fast but I will never stop till I see my daybreak

Fallen Angel

Lyrics by Norihiko Hibino

People keep on calling you like
Fallen Angel

So much you're loved by heaven
You entered the world of eden

You have no end for desire Until you fall

Giving your whole life in vain
But you've got speed in return

Whatever happens to yourself (you are driving the spinning wheel and steer)

You just keep on boosting up your rev limit (never say there's something you can't do)

What a feeling all alone in the dark (there's a fear that you cannot see the way)

You are always the one to go beyond the bound (you are always the one to win)

Whatever happens to yourself
(don't you know that your best moment is now)

You just keep on drifting every corner
(never say there's something you can't do)

What a feeling you're consecrated (don't you know that there's an angel living in you)

You are always the one to go beyond the bound (you are always the one blessed everywhere)

You're the one to be loved woo-
You're the one still in this love woo-
No matter how you wanna get away woo-
You're the one still in this love woo-

Let it shine

Lyrics by Norihiko Hibino

When you are alone in the dark I'm here above you at all times

When you are alone in the dawn
I'm here to hug you at all times

When you are lost in the dusk
I'm here to guide you at all times

When you are down in all troubles
I'm here to be with you at all times

I'll be with you

I'm watching you

I'm loving you

I'm watching you

All the things you see never stay the same there is time to rise, there is time to cease you are here today to make a change to be the light of the world, let it shine!

The race is on

Lyrics by Norihiko Hibino

I Gotta be fast enough
I Gotta be cool enough
I Gotta be strong to win the race

Don't be like furious
Don't stay in loneliness
There's no trix in your race

the race is on

Gotta be more power
Gotta be more torque
Gotta be a breakthrough in the maze

Don't believe in miracles
Don't care about illusions
There's no trix in your race

the race is on

When I am racing through the night oh yeah Sometimes I feel like I go beyond the gateway kick the pedal down to the floor oh yeah
My buddy shouts like a miracle, too good to be true

Night - when I can live in dreams

Dawn - when I will make it real

Truth - I know through all the miracles, I'm still alive here

The race is on - when I can shape my history

The race is still on - it's the chance to take the world apart, I'm here to win, I'll break the maze, and go more than you will know

The race is on

Drive Me Crazy

Lyrics by SAK.

It's almost midnight, the stars are blinking
I cannot handle the thrill I feel Nothing I can hear but the wind is blowing Yes I'm here, yes I'm alive
No one's gonna stop me

The more I seek you, the more I know you
The more I know you, the more I want you
I don't know if I'll go to heaven or hell
But it's OK, I don't care
I wanna get closer to you

You drive me crazy
My heart is speeding up
Crazy for you
I'm so into you

Drive me crazy
I won't put on the brakes
Crazy for you
You take me higher

It's alright, it's alright
Wherever we go
It's alright, it's alright
No one can follow
It's alright, it's alright
Now I feel you more
It's alright, it's alright
I am yours, you are mine

Still Alive

Lyrics by Norihiko Hibino

tonight I'm searching for meaning that I live for true joy that will never disappear tonight the exhaust note fulfills my dried up soul just like water in the desert

I'm still alive
oh yeah
I feel and sense and hear the air

Yes I know the truth
I'm living this extacy and I will go

oh yeah
until my soul bleeds to tears

Now I know
the truth
This is how I feel my life sometimes I hear the whisper of joy sometimes I hear the whisper of loneliness

whatever feeling comes to me
I will always have a place to be

sometimes I hear the whisper of joy

whatever feeling comes to me

still alive

I Will Follow You

Lyrics by SAK.

Sometimes life seems like a lonely race Drivers cannot be replaced

It's as if you live at the speed of light Someday will you go out of sight?

All I want is to feel the same as you
No need to overtake you

Maybe I will not see myself in your eyes
As long as we're heading in the same direction

But you taught me the way
I can be as I am
That's what I wanted to know
More than anything else

I will follow you
Anytime, anywhere
Any danger or fear I may face
I'm willing to take a risk

I will follow you
Any fortune or fame I don't want
They mean nothing to me

Just wanna be with you
